THE EVENT

The Woodford Legends Invitational celebrates women's golf by bringing together the Legends of the LPGA and the best Kentucky Women's Amateurs. This two-day tournament played at The Woodford Club, showcases the talents of the best of professional women's golf including world Hall of Fame players from around the world. Back-to-back 2024 and 2025 champions Catriona Matthew from Scotland and Becky Morgan from Wales will be back to defend their title. The proceeds of the event support the work of KVC of Kentucky and The Woodford Club Foundation whose mission is to "raise funds that enrich the lives of individuals and communities."

The Woodford Club was honored as the Woodford County Chamber of Commerce 2020 Small Business of the Year and served as the proud host of the Kentucky Women's Senior Amateur Championship (2021-2022), the PGA of America PGA Jr. League Regional Championship (2024), the Kentucky Women's Amateur Team Championship (2024), the Kentucky PGA Pro-Junior Championship (2024) and the Woodford LPGA Legends Invitionals (2023-2024).

In 2024, KVC Behavioral HealthCare Kentucky, Inc. proudly celebrated 25 years of providing essential behavioral health care, substance use treatment, child abuse prevention, crisis support and family-strengthening services to children, individuals, and families across Kentucky. In the past year alone, KVC Kentucky's dedicated team served over 20,000 children and families across more than 78 counties in the commonwealth. With a passionate team of nearly 350 practitioners, we focus on strengthening families, preventing child abuse and neglect, and supporting children and adults on their journey to mental health wellness. Our strengths-based services prioritize the safety, permanency, and well-being of every child and family we serve.

At KVC Kentucky, we believe every individual deserves to feel safe and connected to a strong family and healthy community. Guided by our core values, we approach every decision with the question, "What would we want for our own child?" We're committed to always improving the way we help children and families, and we do so with dignity, respect, honesty, and integrity. We pride ourselves on offering services that are sensitive to each family's unique culture, strengths, and values.

KVC Kentucky is accredited by The Joint Commission, a respected organization that sets the highest standards in healthcare. With our dedicated team of staff members working from locations across Central, Eastern, Northeastern, and Northern Kentucky, we're here every day to make a positive difference in the lives of individuals and families.

"Empowering and strengthening the lives of women and their families through the game of golf."
